Main Particulars

Gwel an Mor is located just above the stunning Porthminster beach and was built approximately 20 years ago for residents and second home owners to enjoy the fabulous location and wonderful views of St Ives, the Island, the harbour, out to sea and all along the north Cornwall coastline.

This lovely second floor apartment is easily accessible with a relatively flat walk to the town centre which boasts lots of amenities, including restaurants, cafes, bars, galleries and shops.

The well presented accommodation comprises in brief: Entrance hall with storage cupboard, corner open plan sitting/dining/kitchen with breathtaking panoramic sea, beach and coastal views with doors out to its two balconies, two double bedrooms, one with an ensuite shower room and built-in/walk-in wardrobes, both with glorious views and there is a large shower room.

The building and its grounds are beautifully maintained and this must-see apartment has its own secure lower ground floor parking - with lift access.

THE PROPERTY

Access to the communal entrance hall is located up a few steps to the side of the building as you approach it from the lane. Although you can get to the second floor by lift from the lower ground floor parking garage.

From the communal entrance hall there are stairs or a lift to the second floor.

The door to apartment is on the left. (The apartments gas meter is located near its front door)
